

Helen Schwab Retreat Scholarship

Christian Church in Kansas, 2914 SW MacVicar Avenue, Topeka, KS 66611-1787

The Kansas Disciples Women cabinet established a scholarship fund as a memorial to the life, witness and ministry of Helen Schwab. She served as executive secretary from 1948 until her retirement in 1964. Mrs. Schwab attended the "Turkey Run" meeting and was instrumental in the transition from Kansas Christian Women's Board of Missions to Kansas Christian Women's Fellowship.

Her involvement with the ICWF Quadrennial sparked the creation of the KCWF retreats. Mrs. Schwab's hope was that Kansas women could experience the quality, excitement and challenge of the Quadrennial experience closer to home.

This scholarship is to enable Kansas women with financial need to attend the KDW retreats. The amount granted each year will depend on the funds contributed by local groups and individuals. Contributions to this fund shall be deposited in a special account with the Christian Church in Kansas. Checks shall be made out to Christian Church in Kansas with a notation for the Helen Schwab retreat fund.
